

The flow in the sewer collection system will be redirected to achieve a cost savings in operational costs.